

It Takes More

Jordin Sparks

Tell me what happened this time
Made you come back again
I find I only see you when luck deserts you
If this is your idea of happiness then let's be clear
Those words of yours ain't working anymore 'Cause I'm always giving
Here waiting while you're living
I need a new beginning
Oh, I'm not the girl I used to be with you You think maybe that I'm just so easy
You can come in and out my life like you please
But baby, no, don't you know it takes more
To keep a girl like me No more waiting for you to change
Don't you know that you bringing flowers won't stop the rain
Baby, no, no, don't you know it takes more
You're the only one not worth waiting for I know you're busy so if you gotta go then go
But don't forget to leave my heart
I stayed around for you but you're no where to be found
Now once again here you are 'Cause I'm always giving
Here waiting while you're living
I need a new beginning
Oh, I'm not the girl I used to be with you You think maybe that I'm just so easy
You can come in and out my life like you please
But baby, no, don't you know it takes more
To keep a girl like me No more waiting for you to change
Don't you know that you bringing flowers won't stop the rain
Baby, no, no, don't you know it takes more
You're the only one not worth waiting for I've settled for less
When I stayed with you but no more
'Cause you ain't worth waiting for, ooh, uh You think maybe that I'm just so easy
You can come in and out my life like you please
But baby, no, don't you know it takes more
To keep a girl like me No more waiting for you to change
Don't you know that you bringing flowers won't stop the rain
Baby, no, no, don't you know it takes more
You're the only one not worth waiting for Don't you know it takes more
Don't you know it takes more
Don't you know it takes more
You're the only one not worth waiting for You think maybe that I'm just so easy
You can come in and out my life like you please
But baby, no, don't you know it takes much more No, no, no more waiting for you to change

Don't you know that you bringing flowers won't stop the rain
No, don't you know it takes much more
