

Karma Hotel

Spooks

(Ming Xia)

Welcome.....

To the.....

Karma.....

Hoooooooooooo.....

(x2)(First Verse)

Karma Hotel lobby, and I'm lookin' for enlightenment
Concierge, where can I go to find adventure and excitement?
Played of all the casinos, bars, and orgies, they bore me
Here's another twenty, now what you got for me?
He stared at me hard, finally dipped in his drawer
Flipped the elevator keys and said "Go to the fourteenth floor"
So in a flash I was there, cold knock on the door
Bombarded by cigar smoke, the smell of Hell and War
And when the fog cleared, the scene was like an eerie nightmare
"Come in, we've been waitin' on you for years"
"You wanted adventure, now you got it boy, don't show me no tears,"
"This is the place where you face your desires and fears,"
In each of his hands was a revolver, forty-five in the left
Twenty-two in his right
Russian roulette's the game tonight
And there's NO escape, so don't try to run
But I'll fill your life with bliss if you're alive once the death wheel has spun
"Choose your gun"
Gimme the forty-five, I said with a smile
"Here's a shiny silver bullet, might as well go out in style"
Put one in the cylinder, spun it, aimed at my dome and slowly clicked it
Now I feel the adrenheline rush that's got me so addicted
Motivatin' me to play, a second time, then a third time
Fourth time I clicked and popped
BOOM! Money shot
Next morning, cops found me, needle stickin' out my arm
Peep the drama, another sad story at the Karma(Chorus: Ming Xia)
Welcome to the Karma Hotel
Looks like Heaven but could be Hell
Where pleasant screams transform to yells
And every suite casts its own spell
(2x)(Second Verse)
Peep the gamblin' scene

Gettin' dough as he rambled the fiends
 Exotic queens dancin' with tamborines
 And the Gambler's theme
 One eye open, one eye scopin'
 Watchin' his gat, watchin' his back
 Watchin' his stack, watchin' his wrap
 Watchin' his deck, as people notice like
 "OH SHIT! Boy just won a hundred grand!"
 "Where? Where?" "Oh my God, at Table Seven, did you see him yet?"
 Look at his chips, all that green growin' like Chia Pets
 Two out the handle and he can't stop
 The more and more the fans flock, the more the dice out his hands drop
 Walk in the room, he's bettin' and makin' money and every table
 Women are sweatin' him like he was James Bond or Joe David
 Yeah, he's satisfied, he's in his element now
 To do this for the rest of his life is how it's goin' down
 So it seems like, he got his whole shit set
 But his son is gangbangin' in the park, holdin' a rain check
 Meanwhile, somehow, somethin' is kinda eerie
 About this place that he seems to be payin' a permanent visit to
 Every face he sees, expressionless, like a mannequin
 He really wants to leave, but stays cool, to avoid panickin'
 He's gettin' the same attention, but somethin' seems sorta different
 He's wrinklin' up, losin' weight, and his body's startin' to stiffen
 Now he notices years have passed in one night
 He made more cash than we could imagine, but never lived life(Chorus)(Third Verse: Ming Xia & amp)(Ming Xia)
 Since we're all trapped in, peace guys, see you later
 I'ma go to that red door near the elevator
 Triple nines on nails danglin' off the door
 Excuse me sir, I didn't notice you beforePleased to meet you, Macristo's the name
 Pretty young thing
 Come into my room, I'd like to play a game, it's called "Doom"
 Beat the friends and family
 Gotta give yourself to me
 By the way, what's your name?(Ming Xia)
 EveCheck the scenery(Ming Xia)
 Looks so happy, at the same time
 The way they're entwined seems so good it's a crimeBelieve in me as I believe in you, live it up tonight(Ming Xia)
 Well fuck it I feel I've got all of my life!So true, pleasure and pain, transform lust to thrust
 One night stands of hot sex, the bottle entrusts(Ming Xia)
 Oooh, invitation accepted, too good to reject it
 So I join in unprotectedExpected, one life to live, don't respect it(Ming Xia)
 Respect what?Ooh, you poor child you've been neglected(Ming Xia)

Cristo why do I feel so cold?
It's like each time I climax you take a piece of my soul
You could never leave, you made a pact with the Devil himself
Infected in my family of trust, my daughter of lust(Ming Xia)
So what you're tellin' me is I can't leave!
And I'm trapped here for eternity!
Oooooohhhhhhhhhh!!!!!!Chorus
