

You Don't Know Me At All

Don Henley

I woke up this morning
With an attitude
Looked at the headlines
Put me in a real bad mood
Sitting here remember
Tryin' to stay sane
Between the end of the summer
And the comin' of the blessed rains
And I feel dirty
All the way down
I feel dirty, baby
Like this dirty town
I gave you everything
On a silver tray
Could have been a fool forever
But I'm not made that way And after all these years
I think it's time to say goodbye
I'm doing you a favor
I will not help you live a lie
And believe me
If you think I'm gonna catch you when you fall
You don't know me
You don't know me at all I closed up the curtains
Learned to confess
Baby I knew better
But you were such a pretty mess
You took my breath away
And now I want it back
Aah, you should have killed me
'Cause you always looked so good in black And after all these twisted roads
That we've been down together
I think it's time to say goodbye
And believe me
If you think I'm gonna get down and crawl
You don't know me
You don't know me at all Oooooo After all these years
I think it's time to say goodbye
I'm doing us a favor, baby
You know I cannot live a lie

And when you need me,
And you think I'm gonna be there when you call
You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me at all, la de da
You don't know me at all
You don't know me at all
