Sarah

Eskimo Joe

Sarah, won't you tell me your name?

I've been waiting here for hours

In the garden by the flowers

You're so shySo just open your eyes

The boys all form a line

To be written out in time

A long, long, long time agoEmergency

I think I am falling apart

Emergency

I think I am losing the fightAnd I don't know if I can do it

I don't know if I can try

I don't know if anyone

Asked me the reason I lied

She sighedSarah, is she your new best friend?

One day it will end, you know it will

You're so shySo just let it fall apart

Let it stumble in the dark

With the razors in your heart

A long, long, long time agoEmergency

I think I am falling apart

Emergency

I think I am losing the fightAnd I don't know if I can do it

I don't know if I can try

I don't know if anyone

Asked me the reason I lied

She sighed, she sighed

You're so shyEmergency

I think I am falling apart

Emergency

I think I am losing the fightAnd I don't know if I can do it

I don't know if I can try

I don't know if anyone

Asked me the reason I lied

She sighed, she sighed, oh no
