Run If You Can

Run on up, run on down
Be a step ahead in time
Don't you stop to look in his eyes
He wants your soul, he wants your mindHe'll tear you apart, he'll rip you asunder
Stretch your mind, so look out, yeahHeart must break, heart must bleed
When you heed the demon's call
Death is near, light is the speed
Flashing out, "Just kill them all"Eat out your heart, dark master of thunder
Lord of darkness and doubtRun if you can, shake off the devil
Man, don't you pay with your life
Run if you can, deadly and evil
He's hell on earth and he's aliveOoh, when it is all over
You've surrendered to the night
Out of the day, knowing no way
Deadly is the demon's nightAll you know, is a real world, real men
Love, what they need, it's goneRun if you can, shake off the devil
Man, don't you pay with your life
Run if you can, deadly and evil
He's hell on earth and he's aliveHeart must break, heart must bleed
When you heed the demon's call
Death is near, light is the speed
Flashing out, "Just kill them all"Eat out your heart, dark master of thunder
Lord of darkness and doubtRun, if you can, shake off the devil
Man, don't you pay with your life
Run, if you can, deadly and evil
He's hell on earth and he's alive
And he's aliveRun
