Good Life

Hinder

Passed out layin' in a strip club parking lot
Missin' my shoes and my shirt
Woke up face down, empty bottles all around
And why the hell does my head hurt?
You know I've been there a time or two
Believe it or not, we're just like you
It's a good life
Getting so high, the ground is outta sight
It's a good life
Wakin' up, askin' what happened last night
It's a good life
Think I might have met my future ex-wife
Wish we could remember these days but we never will (No, no)
Woke up by surprise to a girl I didn't recognize
Probably should remember her name
I know it isn't right but every night
When we're loaded every single night
They all start to look the same
You know you've been there a time or two
Believe it or not, we're just like you
It's a good life
Getting so high, the ground is outta sight
It's a good life
Wakin' up, askin' what happened last night
It's a good life
I think I might have met my future ex-wife
Wish we could remember these days but we never will
It may be too late to save my soul
Better live it up before I get too old
So now it's our time to lose control
But who gives a fuck 'cause it's rock 'n' roll
(Yeah, yeah)
It's a good life
Getting so high the ground is outta sight
It's a good life
Wakin' up, askin' what happened last night
It's a good life
I think I might have met my future ex-wife

Wish we could remember these days but we never will
Wish we could remember these days but we never will
Wish we could remember these days but we never will
