

Between the Lines

Dying to Know

verse1

this situations on ice become the warmth in your eyes, all of the thoughts that i'm singing.. eh eh oh, eh eh oh the melodies of a lie that follow all of the rules leave me tonight cause i'm sinking.. eh eh oh, eh eh oh

chorus1

in between these lines running out of time, your thoughts make me all i, so inbetween these lines ignore the warning signs your heart makes me all i've become, i've become, become...

eclipsed the shape of the sun the clock is touching the sky, moments of time that i'm breathing.. eh eh oh, eh eh
oh. so press the lips of your gun in place of all that i've tried, kissing the life that you're leaving.. eh eh oh, eh eh oh..

chorus2

in between these lines running out of time, your thoughts make me all i, so inbetween these lines ignore the bridge

eclipsed the taste of the sun the clock was touching the sky, all of the thoughts were nothing more than seemed.
so turn away from the night, i'm feeling time moving by there is no turning back, it was just a dream.

in between these lines running out of time, your thoughts make me all i, so inbetween these lines ignore the warning signs your heart makes me all i've become, become...
