

Reckless Boys

The Design

I like boys with cracks in the windshield of their old Mercedes Benz

I like boys who always take their benefits with friends

When you call me over to your parents' house

I have to sneak in

I don't know where I'm going

And I don't know where you've been Let's go skinny-dipping

Down by the docks while the world is sleeping

Take some black and whites

Down by the beach where the storm is rolling in

Reckless boys like you

Are always reckless with my heart

But I don't care

We go sailing in the dark Let me tell ya I like boys who serenade me with the fire alarm

I like boys who make up for their history with charm

When you show up late

You can't see straight

You play your violin

I might be mad in the morning

But tonight we live in sin Let's go skinny-dipping

Down by the docks while the world is sleeping

Take some black and whites

Down by the beach where the storm is rolling in

Reckless boys like you

Are always reckless with my heart

But I don't care

We go sailing Oh

Oh, where did my head go?

You take me for everything

And you leave me with _____ Let's go skinny-dipping

Down by the docks while the world is sleeping

Take some black and whites

Down by the beach where the storm is rolling in

Reckless boys like you

Are always reckless with my heart

But I don't care

We go sailing

I don't care

We go sailing

I don't care

We go sailing in the dark
