

Teenager

Jordan Pruitt

I like staying up all night
I think it's my right to sleep until noon
I love watching scary movies I could stay shopping all day
Getting my way and trying on shoes
Don't tell me what I should be doing Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
I like putting things off 'til later
Just hanging out, having fun, taking my time Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
I'm automatically attracted to danger
I can't help myself, can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager I dread making my bed
I wish I could get out of cleaning my room
'Cause I hate keeping my friends waiting Fast cars, playing it by hard
Google-ing stars and surfing for tunes
Does any one here get what I'm saying? Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
I like putting things off 'til later
Just hanging out, having fun, taking my time Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
I'm automatically attracted to danger
I can't help myself, can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager Hello, this is Jordan
Hey what's up?
You'll never guess who called me yesterday
Who? You know that guy that's taking me to homecoming?
Yeah
He was like, You took my breath away when I saw you
He called me sweetie, too
Aww, I don't know if I like him, though I want more minutes on my cell phone
I want a credit card of my own
I want the keys to the Mercedes-Benz, yeah I wanna wear what I wanna wear
I want a curfew when I think it's fair
I wanna chill at the mall with my friends At the mall with my friends
Does anyone here get what I'm saying? Just hanging out, having fun, taking my time
I can't help myself, can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
I like putting things off 'til later
Just hanging out, having fun, taking my time Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
I'm automatically attracted to danger
I can't help myself, can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager Give me a break, I'm just a teenager
