I've held this fire
And I've walked through fire
And it's burning outsideAsk for a feeling for a direction
And it's burning insideI know of a temple holding a spirit
Holding a spirit
I know of a story that ends with a question
You're asking about meAsk for a feeling for a direction
And it's burning insideI know of a temple holding a spirit
Holding a spirit
I know of a story that ends with a question
You're asking about meAsk for a feeling for a direction
Ask for an energy
Ask for an energy to give me a feeling
Asking about me
