

Where Did You Go

The Classic Crime

Distaste and ignorance are the closest friends can go
'Cause you cannot love someone
Who you never tried to know
I am the wind that keeps blowing against your coat
But you are persistent as you press on down the roadWhere did you go?
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
Where did you go?A poem won't last for long
But a rhyme can give you hope
A blue coloured love don't fit
In a heart's white coloured holeAnd I'm like a rogue wave
Just crashing on your floor
But you are consistent like a barnacle on shoreWhere did you go?
Where did you go?
Where did you go?
Where did you go?You're gonna find me
Saving a place for you
When you're all alone
And u're tired of being usedthere's no need for crying
I carry no blame for you
Don't be afraid
I have paid to make it newI don't care where you've been
I was there and I know
I don't care what you've done
Or how far you've run
Will you just come home?I don't care where you've been
I was there and I know
I don't care what you've done
Or how far you've run
Will you just come home?Where did you go?
Where did you go?

Lyrics provided by
<https://damlyrics.com/>