

Yes It's Fucking Political

Skunk Anansie

{ Tonight we discuss the phenomenon of hooliganism
All gangs of youth have taken to the streets
Bloody ready to fight
Bloody culture, baby
Using shots in the battle
[Incomprehensible]
Any change is a good change
Especially after the government has been in power for something
I like to justify that I haven't eaten any of that beef } So the pierce screwed up your face
'Cos your girlie liked the taste
You're infected by the tease political
So you're dirty guilty braids
Made your body smell of mace
So debauched in your slick mink political Yes it's fucking political Everything's political
Yes it's fucking satirical
Everything's satirical
Yes it's fucking political
Everything's political The wild ones like to hide
As the dirty priest confides
In the love of baby whores political
Negative are all your views
So you to can prop up your fake cool
A puppet all the same political Yes it's fucking political Everything's political
Yes it's fucking satirical
Everything's satirical
Yes it's fucking political
Everything's political Yes it's fucking political Everything's political
Yes it's fucking satirical
Everything's satirical
Yes it's fucking political
Everything's political
