

America Is Not The World

Morrissey

America, your head's too big
Because America, your belly's too big
And I love you
I just wish you'd stay where you is
In America, the land of the free, they said
And of opportunity in a just and a truthful way
But where the President is never black, female or gay
And until that day you've got nothing to say to me to help me believe
In America, it brought you the hamburger
Well America you know where you can shove your hamburger
And don't you wonder why in Estonia they say
"Hey you, big fat pig, you fat pig, you fat pig"?
Steely blue eyes with no love in them scan the world
And a humorless smile with no warmth within greets the world
And I, I have got nothing, to offer you, no no no no no
Just this heart deep and true which you say you don't need
See with your eyes, touch with your hands, please
Hear through your ears, know in your soul, please
For haven't you me with you now?
And I love you, I love you, I love you and I love you, I love you, I love you
