

What Now

Aubrey Ashburn

What now
That I have been to Europe
Heavens again
What now
That I have fallen in love,
Lost myself, and cried? You're the only thing that keeps me from coming loose.
You're so far ahead of me.
And I can not tell if you were sinking
Or standing on top of the cheese. I'm looking out for the day
When I can open the shades and say,
"My god, I see the light,
The connection with me, and the rest of my life!"
What now
That I have kissed the clouds
Long enough to learn to fly?
What now
That I have stumbled across
What it is that scares you so? You're the only thing that keeps me from coming loose.
You're so far ahead of me.
And I can not tell if you were sinking
Or standing on top of the cheese. I'm looking out for the day
When I can open the shades and say,
"My god, I see the light,
The connection with me, and the rest of my life!" I'm looking out for the day
When I can open the shades and say,
"My god, I see the light,
The connection with me, and the rest of my life!"
I'm looking out for the day
I can open the shades and say,
"My god, I see the light,
The connection with me, the rest of my life!" What now? What now? What now? What now?

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>