Here's My Hello

Blake Lewis

Here's my hello
Here's my hello
You turn me on, now don't turn it off
'Cause I don't want to fade out tonight
Your lips are the sweetness, your body's the sin
A single touch and my skin is electrified
One kiss, two hearts beat in time
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
Do you want me? Just stay here with me tonight
Look in my eyes, you can't deny me, no
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
You taunt me, I'll stand here waiting for you
I lose my mind
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
Can't get a grip now, I'm in too deep
Give me a taste of your love, then you're gone
How can I catch you and swallow you whole?
With the sway of your hips, I lose control
One kiss, two hearts beat in time
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
Do you want me? Just stay here with me tonight
Look in my eyes, you can't deny me, no
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
You taunt me, I'll stand here waiting for you
I lose my mind
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
Can't stop thinking 'bout you, don't start without me
We cannot proceed unless I put a lock on the door
Throw away the key, just stay here with me
U-u-under the sheets
One kiss, two hearts beat in time
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
Do you want me? Just stay here with me tonight
Look in my eyes, you can't deny me, no
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
You taunt me, I'll stand here waiting for you
I lose my mind
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye

Do you want me? Just stay here with me tonight
Look in my eyes, you can't deny me, no
Here's my hello, don't say goodbye
You taunt me, I'll stand here waiting for you
I lose my mind
