Galaxies Will Be Born

Say Hi

just sleep now, don't be afraid the earth will spin and the leaves will fade and galaxies will be bornwhen you turn when you turnand i wouldn't rather be doing anything without you and i wouldn't rather be doing anything without youwe'll swim oceans black as ink and find some beautiful beings to eat i take your hand and show you lovehow it burns how it burnsand i wouldn't rather be doing anything without you and i wouldn't rather be doing anything without youand i wouldn't rather be doing anything without you and i wouldn't rather be doing anything without you
