

I'll Be Home Soon

Craig Morgan

You call me up
You ain't even gotta say a single word cause I already know
It's been one of those days honey something got you stirred up
Weighing down like an anchor that you gotta drag around
But I know just what you need[Chorus]
And I'll be home soon
To kiss away the world burn
Your troubles down
I'm gonna make you forget
When I'm holding you
There's only room for us nothing else allowed
Tell all your worries there ain't much time left
It's time to go cause I'll be home soon Yeah I'm running reds, so I can run my fingers through
Your hair girl I can feel it now and I'm coming for you honey
You can lay it on me, every care
Baby call and I'll be there to catch you
I'm on my way And I'll be home soon
To kiss away the world burn
Your troubles down
I'm gonna make you forget
When I'm holding you
There's only room for us nothing else allowed
Tell all your worries there ain't much time left
It's time to go cause I'll be home soon Awww yeah And I'll be home soon
To kiss away the world burn
Your troubles down
I'm gonna make you forget
When I'm holding you
There's only room for us nothing else allowed
Tell all your worries there ain't much time left
It's time to go cause I'll be home soon Yeah
Awww yeah
I'll be home soon You call me up
You ain't even gotta say a single word
I already know
