Burst

Magazine

Once you had this promise On the tip of your tongue But it went without saying It went on too longAll the straws you clutched at Have burst into flames And so you smile that way Tantalizingly lameThe smart ones understood+ How your heart bursts Like a bottle of champagne You're just dessertsThe smart ones understand You shouldn't settle for less You're gonna forget yourself In my happinessKeep your silence to yourself You will forget yourself Keep your silence to yourself You will forget yourselfYou will forget yourself You will forget yourself You will forget yourself You will forget yourselfKeep your silence to yourself You will forget yourself Keep your silence to yourself You will forget yourselfYou will forget yourself (In my happiness) You will forget yourself
