

You Can't Hold On Too Long

The Cars

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I can't put out your fire, I know it's too late
I can't be up for hire, it's not my best trait
The gallows glass is crackin', it's startin' to smash
How can you cry without blinkin' a lash? You're feelings cross and wavy on the edge of the cuff
You're pushin' and poppin', you don't get enough
You wish that it was over, you never slow down
You're lookin' for kicks, there's nothing around You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright You're surrounded by the laughin' boys, they puncture your style
And they send for their bandanas, and you try for their smile
You'd like to come in colors, you don't know which one
You can't be too choosy, it's just for fun You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright
You can't hold on too long, it's alright
