

Smother

Daughter

Iâ€™m wasted, losing time
Iâ€™m a foolish, fragile spine
I want all that is not mine
I want him but weâ€™re not right

In the darkness I will meet my creators
And they will all agree, that Iâ€™m a suffocator

I should go now quietly
For my bones have found a place to lie down and sleep
Where all my layers can become reeds
All my limbs can become trees
All my children can become me
What a mess I leave
To follow (x4)

In the darkness I will meet my creators
They will all agree, Iâ€™m a suffocator

Suffocator (x2)
Oh no
Iâ€™m sorry if I smothered you (x2)
I sometimes wish Iâ€™d stayed inside
My mother
Never to come out
