

Heaven to a Fool

James Morrison

How can't i love somebody?
When the lies become the truth
How you never gonna love somebody
The way that i loved you
Wasted precious time
When you were still mine
The things you did for me
The things i didn't do
Now you've left me in a darkness
And there is no blame on you
Like heaven to a fool
All the love you wasted loving me
Wish i'd opened up my eyes to see it
So cruel
All the seeds of the love we planted but
I took it all for granted like
Heaven to a fool
You broke down when i told you
I wasn't safe to keep
Now i pretend that i still hold you
Every time i go to sleep
Think i lost my mind
I might as well be blind
It's only you i see
Just like you're haunting me
Like a ghost in a darkness
Huuhhh
That's all that's left of you
Like heaven to a fool
All the love you wasted loving me
Wish i'd opened up my eyes to see it
So cruel
All the seeds of love we planted but
I took it all for granted like
Heaven to a fool
And if i can't say
Who the hell was i to think your love could never set me free
And at night i pray

That your light will fade
You're like heaven
Heaven, heaven, to a fool
Eh, Ow, Ow
Like heaven to a fool
All the love you wasted loving me
Wish i'd opened up my eyes to see it
All the seeds of love we planted but
I took i all
Heaven to a fool
All the love you wasted loving me
Wish i'd opened up my eyes to see it
So cruel
All the seeds of love we planted but
I took it them all for granted like
Heaven to a fool
To a fool
To a fool, Hey.
