Guidance

Amavasya

If I could feel for a moment
That this was my final breath
I would not take this life for granted
I've come to you a broken soul
With the life I lead I can't do this on my own

So lend me your arms for comfort
Lend me your heart for love
Lend me your eyes for guidance

So lend me your arms for comfort
Lend me your heart for love
Lend me your mind for knowledge
On who I will become

We all know
Life can feel like a dead end
So trust me when I say
That's the moment you'll really feel alive
Keep moving forward

And breakthrough

You're not alone (x3)
You're never alone

To break the chains of tomorrow
We must purge ourselves of yesterday

We all know
Life can feel like a dead end
So trust me when I say
That's the moment you'll really feel alive
Keep moving forward

Look at me when I tell you
It will get better than this
Don't give up the fight
Don't give up your life
We've all been there

We've all been down
We've all felt like this can't turn around.

So lend me your arms for comfort
Lend me your heart for love
Lend me your mind for knowledge
Because

We all know
Life can feel like a dead end
So trust me when I say
That's the moment you'll really feel alive
Keep moving forward
