Certainty

Sloucher

I was all alone
Reaching for the phone
To look at all of my pictures of her
Drawings on my wall
Waiting on a call
To hear the voice that says "I love you too"

She's been gone for weeks
Driving me crazy
My room is such a mess
But I made my bed
And when she's back with me
I'm gonna say "Baby, I don't want to be anywhere else"

I can't wait to see her face
And for her to spend time with me
Right now it's like she's here anyhow
And soon enough she'll be gone again

Counting down the days
To pick her up from the train
She always looks so good no matter what
Nothing done or said
She gets me out of my head
And I think that she feels the same

I can't wait to see her face
And for her to spend time with me
Right now it's like she's here anyhow
And I can tell her with certainty "I love you"
I can tell her with certainty "I love you"
I can tell her with certainty
