

Throwin' It All Away

Zakk Wylde

You couldn't feel the sunlight upon your face
Your little world a little out of place
You couldn't hear the ocean, you couldn't hear the waves
I know you meant to come back, I know you meant to stay
All you touched
All you know
All you loved, yeah
Well I can see you smile
Can you see my tears?
I reach to hold you but you ain't there
You left a hole so big Lord, beyond repair
I'll try to find forgiveness in talkin' what will never share
All you touched
All you know
All you loved
You just left 'em with nothing to say
