

Ubiquitous

3 Brave Souls, John Beasley, Ndugu Chancler and Da

Ubiquitous Stripped away Ego burns, visions stay Integrate Knowledge found, love and hate Somehow it's all the same empty screams devoid of blame forever trying to replace an incomplete mystery face Trauma takes Innocence, cradle breaks Without a trace Fairy tale falling grace Somehow it's all the same we get strong in a twisted game Holding on to fate missing link, hollow state
