

Time of Our Lies

Travis Marvin

Time of our lives~ Travis Marvin

You've got your dreams and I've got mine
Something we both share at one time
It's hard for me to travel down that road
All alone... I need you home

You can't tell me that we're through cause I won't leave it
This is something I think time can only heal it
All I ever really wanted to know is where we're going
Do you have me on your mind, and damn am I worth knowing
And Tonight

Ya we're living the time of our lives

I think it's time we both sat down
Let's figure this out, find our way around (oh. Ik it's there)
I'm tired of this lonely feeling right after nine
All alone... when you coming home

You can't tell that we're there cause I won't believe it
This is something I think time can only heal it
All I ever really wanted to know is where we're going
Do you have me on your mind and damn am I worth knowing
Tonight

Ya we're living the time 2x
Ya we're living the time of our lives

I'm sorry that I hurt you baby
Mhhhhh...
You got your dreams and I got mine
It's just time
