Hate for the Weak

Throwdown

Truth
You wrap your words around it
Strength
Born in each one of us but somehow you never found it
Hate
Its too late to erase and now hates all i have for the weak
Youre just so weak
You talk you talk you talk
But you never walk the walk
Ive heard it before and ive had enough
You talk you talk you talk
But you never walk the walk
Im up to my neck now i want the truth
Theres just no way around it
Strength
You can front all you want but your nothing without it hate
No escape from my hate, theres no way, your lies made you too
Weak
Youre just so weak
You talk you talk you talk
But you never walk the walk
Ive heard it before and ive had enough
You talk you tak you talk
But you never walk the walk
Im up to my neck now i want the truth
I want the truth
Hate for the weak and hate for all those lies you fed me
Dont fucking speak
Its too late, youre all but dead now to me
