Moody Blues

Declan

Took so long you know
Trying to get to know you
And I came along
You turned and walked away

I was already to talk talk deep
You knew exactly what I had to say
So why did you smile at me only yesterday
And showed me only your indifference today

Wake up wake up and feel the grass
Moody blues they're gonna, they?re gonna pass
Wake up wake up and feel the grass
Moody blues they're gonna, they're gonna pass

Suppose you?re just my fantasy
One that's got no right to be
You don?t speak to me or know my name

I?m standing here right on the fringe, right on the fringe
Like some kind of stranger
Looking in

So why did you smile at me only yesterday
And showed me only your indifference today

Wake up wake up and feel the grass
Moody blues they're gonna, they're gonna pass
Wake up wake up and feel the grass
Moody blues they're gonna, they're gonna pass

Wake up wake up and feel the grass
Moody blues they're gonna, they're gonna pass
Wake up, Wake up, Wake up, Wake up
Moody Blues they're gonna, they're gonna pass
