

Violate

Cress

Why are you doing this to me? Have I done something wrong?

My childhood eyes can't see. Innocence! It was born in me, stripped of my clothes, you ignored my plea. Violate!

One who was, so very close, wasn't it enough, no! You had to boast, of your sick perverse fantasies, you've had your share, now leave me be. Violate! You found me, you touched me you raped me, you left me, you hurt me, you hurt me, explored me, destroyed me. You've played with my head you're playing with my heart, ran inside my dreams you tore them all apart. Just another freak for your perverse circus, no more tricks. I don't deserve this.

Violate!
