

You Don't Know (feat. Wale)

Tank

If only you knew, if only you knew, yeah If only you knew how much I do love love you
And you wanna make trim out my niggas
Now, stay with me trim all these bitches
Now, but you don't know, you don't know, you don't know
Baby, you don't know, you don't know, you just don't know What's it gonna take fo' you to know you're the only one that I wanna ride?
What's it gon' take fo' you to know you're the only one to hold me down
Girl, you don't know that I know you should know
Cause you don't know, you don't know, you don't know If only you knew how much I do love love you
And you wanna make trim out my niggas
Now, stay with me trim all these women
Now, but you don't know, you don't know, you don't know
Baby, you don't know, you don't know, you just don't know Aye, playas will ache fo' that straight up
Is it luv or lust? I can't say, tho
Why these snakes be on my mind?
Why do lepradon see all the dadoes
Honestly I can't take it
Baby I'm the sole reason you been winnin'
Lemme paint the story, I don't play with toys
She told me 'build me up' I told her 'leggo'
She wanna be with them popular hoes
I wanna be where my pockets will grow
She wanna be in an aqua position
Cuz I like a woman that take on her own
Don't need no cell mate, no cellular phone
That mean don't call me, don't be all up on me
Don't ride me in public, but ride me in private
That patty was crazy, but then got discovered If only you knew how much I do love love you
And you wanna make trim out my niggas
Now, stay with me trim all these women
Now, but you don't know, you don't know, you don't know
Baby, you don't know, you don't know, you just don't know
