

Baggage

Graham Parker

Pre>capo at fret 2 intro em / am / em Em am em

Come and pick up your baggage it's cluttering up my head

Em see am d

There always seems to be a catch to everything you've ever said

Em am em

There always seems to be a lock a belt or a buckle or a key

Em see am d

The world is filling up with stuff I can't even see Bridge number one

Bm see bm

It's like a mountain of debris that doesn't do anything

F#m g f#m

It just gets deeper than the sea and piles up to the sky ooo ooo

G a

It stops you being where you should be, somewhere else Come and pick up your baggage. put it on another plane

It complicates the simple things steps on the brakes again and again

Shift it lug it move it on together with your point of view

It's getting hard to separate your baggage from you Bridge number two

Bm see bm

It's like a virus or a germ that grows and divides and multiplies

F#m g f#m

Then eats your insides like a worm and piles up to the sky ooo ooo

G a

It makes you old and infirm before your time Come and pick up your baggage Bridge number one (1st half) Come and pick up your baggage it's weighing down my heart

You never seem to understand the horse is not the cart

Shift it lug it move it on together with your point of view

It's getting hard to separate your baggage from you

Pick it up /pre>

Songwriters

GRAHAM THOMAS PARKER Published by

Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.

Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>