

Lay Down (Candles In the Rain) [Re-Recorded]

Melanie

Lay down lay down, let it all down
Let your white birds smile up at the
    Ones who stand and frown
Lay down lay down, let it all down
Let your white birds smile up at the
Ones who stand and frownWe were so close, there was no room
    We bled inside each others wounds
    We all had caught the same disease
And we all sang the songs of peacechorus
    So raise the candles high cause if you
    Don't we could stay black against the night
    Oh raise them higher again and if you
    Do we could stay dry against the rainchorus
    We were so close, there was no room
    We bled inside each others wounds
    We all had caught the same disease
    And we all sang the songs of peace
Some came to sing, some came to pray
Some came to keep the dark awaySo raise the candles high
    Cause if you don't we could stay
    Black against the sky
    Oh oh raise them higher again
And if you do we could stay dry against the rainchorus
