So Beautiful

Dashboard Confessional

I heard that you were home again
But you don't look like you're back to me
With your focuses changing
You gaze is transfixed on a point that I can't often see
You've got your new ties
I've got my old knots
You've got your inside line
But you're never happy with what you've got
Careful now, you're so beautiful
When you've convinced yourself
No one else is quite as beautiful
I heard that you were living well
But you don't look like you're living to me
Though the sparkle is gone
Your smile is in place so that everyone watching will see
You've got them all convinced
But I know so well
That you could list your friends
But you can't count on them
Hold it now, you've got everyone convinced
That you're all right
When no one else is quite as vulnerable
As soon as you've got it, you want something else
It's not the sale that you love it's the sell
It's not the price that's gonna cost you
It's just the weight that's gonna bring you down town
Down town, it's gonna bring you down town
Down town, down, it's gonna bring you down town
Down town, it's gonna bring you down town
Down town, down
Hold it now, you've got everyone convinced
That you're all right
No one else is quite as vulnerable
Careful now, you're so beautiful
When you've convinced yourself
No one else is quite as beautiful
As soon as you've got it, you want something else
It's not the sale that you love, it's the sell
It's not the price that's gonna cost you

It's just the weight that's gonna bring you down town
Down town, it's gonna bring you down town
Down town, down
As soon as you've got it, you want something else
It's not the sale that you love it's the sell
It's not the price that's gonna cost you
It's just the weight that's gonna bring you down
