Mount the Air

The Unthanks

ill mount the air on swallows wings to find my dearest dear and if I lose my labor and cannot find him there i quickly will become fish to swim the roaring seas
i love my lord
because i know my love for he loves meIll mount the air on swallows wing
and i lose my labor and cannot find him there i quickly will become fish to swim the roaring seas
because I know my love for him he loves me.
I'd comb the air and ocean deep
in all my days and empty nights i cannot find him there I swiftly will become a deer and scan the heavened moors ill find my love before the winter falls on these shores Ill cast all fear unto the wind and undo my soul and if in danger he tumbles from my hold ill rip the earth on which he lands and rest his head to sleep
because i know my love for he is meeeeee
