

One Great Song And I Could Change The World

Swim Deep

Have I said why I love the sunrise?
It's 'cause it's only gonna get lighter.
Feels different than paradise
Is this love?

Have I said why I love the sunrise?
It's 'cause it's only gonna get lighter.
Feels different than paradise
Is this love?

If my touch is real then so's my dream.
I'm an extremist when I hear my wolf howl.
When I'm coming down bless my frown
I don't mean it.

It's a mad mad morning when my melody is in vogue.
It's a sad sad dawning when my brothers and sisters seem to go.

I know I don't talk about disaster.

All my days I need to laugh!

I'm being told to make it faster.

That was my idea I already said.

Will my mantra heal when I finally feel enthusiastic
Around my ivories?

I don't usually move like I've moved here.

Have I said why I love the sunrise?

It's 'cause it's only gonna get lighter.

Feels different than paradise

Is this love?

One great song and I could change the world.

One broken heart and the wind couldn't tell me which way to go.

One glass of bad bad wine and I'll be out on the road singin' "one great song song and I could change the world".

Have I said why I love the sunrise?

Have I said why I love the sunrise?

It's 'cause it's only gonna get lighter.

Feels different than paradise

Is this love?
