

It's Ok

Karin

Walking round with that weight on your shoulder
Seems like the wind gets stronger
Dark clouds above your head
Wish you could hide in your bed
Dont stress behind the cloud there is sunshine
It seems far away but you'll be fine
Give yourself a little break
For heavens sakeIts fine to have regrets
But at some point just let it go
Just forgive and forget
I think that you should knowIts ok to make mistakes
You might take the wrong turn
You live and you learn
So dont be afraid to make mistakes
Were all human we are this wayWhat doesnt kill you makes you stronger
There is Nothing you cant conquer
Have some faith in yourself
Dont hide in the shelves
Just remember that your awesome
Life is unpredictable like autumn
Be proud of who you are
Youre a shining starIts fine to have regrets
But at some point just let it go
Just forgive and forget
I think that you should knowIts ok to make mistakes
You might take the wrong turn
You live and you learn
So dont be afraid to make mistakes
Were all human we are this way
