Crosses

For All Those Sleeping

Nothing Matters
(Nothing Matters)
Nothing Matters, but the voice inside
Nothing Matters
Nothing Matters
Nothing Matters, in the great divide
GO!It stars with a spark
But all ends the same
Give it up
Go down in flames
And once you know it's already too lateOpen up the flood gates
You wanna trust my words
Heal my hurt and feel my pain
But if you knew the reasons, I run
They'd be the reasons, you'd never stayNothing Matters
(Nothing Matters)
Nothing Matters, but the voice inside
Nothing Matters
Nothing Matters
Nothing Matters, in the great divideMaybe, one day my scars will fade
I am my cross to bear
(I am my cross to bear)
No, I don't want to shelter you
From everything that I've been through
So will you, will you
Let me be your cross to bearI know you wanna believe
That there's still some hope, some hope for me
But if there's any left it's buried underneath
The surface (surface) we dig
Till we find a cure
Or there's nothing left, we dig
And pray to god what we see will forget, dig
Till we find a cure for my emptiness, we dig
Till there's nothing left (there's nothing left)Maybe, one day my scars will fade
I am my cross to bear
(I am my cross to bear)
No, I don't want to shelter you
From everything that I've been through
So will you, will you

Let me be your cross to bearNothing Matters
But the voice inside
Nothing Matters
When you're dead insideAm I worth your grave
Cause that's what you're digging
Can't you seeMaybe, one day my scars will fade
I am my cross to bear
(I am my cross to bear)
No, I don't want to shelter you
From everything that I've been through
So will you, will you
Let me be your cross to bear
