

Misery's Dawn

Evereve

Do you believe in heaven or do you believe in pain?

A sanctuary built for the mischosen

Is it the final contradiction or just an irony of fate?

Doomed we are to drown in an empty oceanIn Misery's dawn...

Can't you see?God's forgotten children struggle for their lives

While innocent convicts celebrate the knife

"I'll always be with you" - But I've never really been

On your way back to the gallows, destiny's fulfilledMisery's dawn

Can't you see?

Misery's dawnTogether from a black sea of stars we shall arise

To fall down once more, failure in disguise

In tragedy's harvest the fruit's a bitter loss

They broke your wings and make you tumble down... at any costYou burned me with your poisoned seed of doubt

Why do you want me to suffer?Is this the day of geaven or is this the day of pain?

I closed my heart forever as the blade slowly opened your veins...Misery's dawn

Can't you see?

This is my private misery
