

Runaway

Lucky 7

I don't believe in all the words that I read.
I've been stuck between the lines.
Life in the middle is never what it could be.
Empty faces mirror mine.
So come with me, we'll drive straight through the night.
We'll leave this world behind, baby.
Turn up my song, it's on the radio.
Innuendos go anywhere you wanna go.
Hit the window and feel the summer wind blow.
Everything will be alright.
Runaway with me tonight.
I don't believe in all the rumors I hear.
They'll tear your world apart.
Tracing circles doesn't bring us any closer.
Falling backwards from the start.
