Genuine

Stacie Orrico

I see you passing by, I don't where, I don't know why

You choose to go the way that you're going now

You've been a friend of mine for many years for a long time but

You just aren't you today, so what's on your mind?You just won't speak about it, think about it, be about it

Gotta make yourself aware that you're goin' astray

You're trying so hard to fit inWhat you need is something genuine

What you want is something real

What you need is something truthful

I know you do, I know you doI know you do, 'cause I need it too

What you need, what you need

What you want, what you want

What you need, what you need

Something genuineYou cry yourself to sleep

Sleep at night but once the night is gone

And you prepare to face a brand new day

You hide yourself behind that mastermind

You're in disguise

It's as if you try to put a mask on your painYou don't know who you are

What you're about, where are you now

You're becoming someone that you don't want to be

You're trying so hard to fit inWhat you need is something genuine

What you want is something real

What you need is something truthful

I know you do, I know you doI know you do, 'cause I need it too

What you need, what you need

What you want, what you want

What you need, what you need

Something genuineHe loves you for who you are now and who you will be

Don't fear living in truth there's reality

I don't have all the answers but I know One who does

And I know there's freedom and truth, I got to Him becauseWhat you need is something genuine

I know you doWhat you need is something truthful

What you need, what you need

What you want, what you want

What you need, what you needWhat He has is something genuine

Who He is is someone real

What He gives is something truthful

It's what He has, it's who he isIt's what He gives

And I need Him too

What you need, what you need I need Him too What you want, what you want What you need, what you need Something genuineWhat He has is something genuine Who He is is someone real What He gives is something truthful It's what He has, it's who he isIt's what He gives And I need Him too What you need, what you need I need Him too What you want, what you want What you need, what you need Something genuineDo you know what you need? Do you know what you need? I know what you need 'Cause I, I need it too Something genuine He is something genuine
