

Going To the River

Fats Domino

Oh, I'm goin' to the river, gonna
Jump overboard and drown
I'm goin' to the river, gonna
Jump overboard and drown
Because the girl I love
She just done let, let me down When she left me
I bowed my head and cried
When she left me
I bowed my head and cried
I never thought I would be
I would be the one to cry Well, if you see my mama, tell
Her good-bye for me
If you see my mama, tell
Her good-bye for me
I'm tired of livin'
Livin' in misery
