

Love Grammar

John Parr

You wanna shake my hand, say there's no hard feelings
But there's another lie between the lines I'm reading If you want him, then take him, just push me away, baby I just got to know
If you want him, then have him, there's no other way, yeah I tear your letters up, and flush away the pieces
How does that saying go, you'd love me till hell freezes You're lyin', I'm dyin' a little each day, girl you know it hurts me so
Stop duckin' and diving, come right out and say Chorus:
'Cause I can't take no more of this Love grammar, takin' me and breakin' me up, love grammar, the grammar of love
I before he except after she - knows I'll always be there Ready or not, she took what I got - to give and she don't care - I before he Don't wanna lose control, and maybe rock proceedings
Don't fear a new attack, the fact is I'm conceding If you want him, then take him, don't treat me this way Cause I just feel like letting go
You want him, you got him, I'm leavin' today (Chorus) Love grammar, takin' me and breakin' me up, love grammar, the grammar of love Love grammar, takin' me and breakin' me up, love grammar, the grammar of love I before he except after she - knows I'll always be there Ready or not, she took what I got - to give and she don't care
I before he except after she Love grammar (I before he, except after she)... (repeats out)
