New Sacred Cow

Kenna

Living in the blur of I'd
Between the ego and the guilt
Everyone is hiding something ugly
I can't say they're alone in itThe black cloud chases like satellites overhead
I don't, I don't have the patience to watch you looking down on me
I won't, I don't need a reason to feel love from anyone here
Your only love is yourself, your only love is yourselfCrucify yourself for them
Does it make you feel any better?
Religion as the crutch, all warped and delerious
I swear I can't take it anymoreThe black cloud chases like satellites overhead
I don't, I don't have the patience to watch you looking down on me
I won't, I don't need a reason to feel love from anyone here
Your only love is yourself, yourself
Oh oh, oh oh, yeah yeah yeah yeah yeahOh and you'll crash, you'll burn
You'll wreck and you'll earn, the right to lose your mind
When you rush, you will rage and you war
Just to make it right againThe black cloud chases like satellites overhead
I don't, I don't have the patience to watch you looking down on me
I won't, I don't need a reason to feel love from anyone here
Your only love is yourself, your only love is yourselfYour only love is yourself, your only love is yourself
Your only love is yourself, your only love is yourself
Your only love is yourself, your only love is yourself
Your only love is yourself, your only love is yourself
Self, self, self
