Lust For Love (feat. Tracey Lee)

Eric Roberson

Please have my heart do, going up insane
Told my heart I love her, but let me just explain
We met through friends and nights are lean
I love her out of share
She enjoyed mine as well
Months went by and every night
We ended up the same
She entered in and we began
And every night she came
Satisfied to what we done,
But I thought there was more
But looking back now I'm assuredI never thought I'd be the Man in mistaken lust, lust for love,
And here I am
I never thought I'd be the
Man in mistaken lust, lust for love
