Dub Fx

Weak at the knees in the mouth of the beast with a fist in the air I march on For the hunter is hunted its sword has been blunted by echoes of hunger in song It's blinded by lust from an ultimate plain in a castle that lives in the sky My mission at hand is to murder its plan and bring down the all Seeing Eye Together we stand in a fight for the right to be free from the lies and deceit
Our brains have been washed and our souls have been lost yet we will not back down or retreat
They will not give up it is obvious so we will unite with our consciousness And eventually were going to reposess the freedoms we had while we clean the mess Now as I stare into space I can see the stress on the physical plane of our consciousness
The things that we want we can manifest all we need is to focus In the land of dreams it's an endless sea where the conscious breathe for eternity We can all unite there collectively but we need is to believe its easy Cos there are too many minds that are waking up and there are too many lies in the media And now the youth of our culture is shaping up to be the spiritual army who will fight ya But if we believe the world is gonna end then we can make it happen so don't pretend That it's not up to you and you've got no control the power lives within your soul

Gaze at the Earth from a Distance
Can't you see that we are one it's obvious
Gaze at the Earth from a Distance
We can all unite with our consciousness Suspended in time in this universe
Gaze at the Earth from a distance
We can all unite
We can all unite
