

Diamonds

JOHNNYSWIM

In the wake of every heartache
In the depth of every fear
There were diamonds, diamonds
Waiting to break out of here. Don't you think I hear the whispers
Those subtle lies, those angry pleas
There just demons, demons
Wishing they were free like me. We're the fire, from the sun
We're the light when the day is done
We are the brave, the chosen ones
We're the diamonds, diamonds
Rising about the dust. Oh oh, rising about the dust
Oh oh, rising about the dust
Oh oh, rising about the dust
Oh oh, rising about the dust. All your curses will surrender
Every demon worth will kneel
They're just mountains, mountains about to turn into fields. We're the fire, from the sun
We're the light when the day is done
We are the brave, we're the chosen ones
We're the diamonds, diamonds
Rising about the dust. Oh oh, rising about the dust
Oh oh, rising about the dust
Oh oh, rising about the dust
Oh oh, rising, rising, rising, rising. You've taken down
So many others
Oh but you'll know my name when you see
And in these ashes I'm stronger still You'll learn to feel my pain, yeah you will. You've taken down
So many others
Oh but you'll know my name when you see
And in these ashes I'm stronger still You'll learn to feel my pain, yeah you will.
You'll learn to feel my pain, yeah you will, yeah you will, yeah you will. We're the fire, from the sun
We're the light when the day is done
We are the brave, we are the chosen ones
We're the diamonds, diamonds
We're the diamonds, diamonds
We're the diamonds, diamonds
We're the diamonds, diamonds

Rising about the dust.Oh oh, rising out the dust

Oh oh, rising out the dust

Oh ohOh oh, rising about the dust

Oh oh, rising about the dust

Oh oh, rising, rising, rising

Oh oh
