

Before Destruction

Spoon

Before destruction
A man's heart is haughty
Before destruction
A man's
Heart is haughty
Everyone loves you for your black eye
They feast on the abundance of your house
Your love

I want to believe
For once to believe now
Just as you're leaving
You turn around and take a cold shot
Just as you're turning your back . . .
Ah, love
Your love
