Back to Zero

Sam Paganini

Love, Just hold me
One more time, then I let it go
The need to know, what was real
Everything I asked for is given back

I do not want to pretend that I have rested in vain
And as the sun turns away I feel the pain of the stains

I am down back to zero
Never thought id need this place, again
The tracks along my dreams
Lead me back to the beginning
Back down, to zero

No guarantees, or commitments
Never promised what we could not keep
Visions clash, separate us
Pictures changing make things fall apart

I do not want to pretend that I have rested in vain
And as the sun turns away I feel the pain of the stains

I am down back to zero
Down back to zero
Down back to zero
Back down to zero

I am down back to zero
Never thought id need this place, again
The tracks along my dreams
Lead me back to the beginning
Back down, to zero

And don't you think its the strangest thing
I know I should've known better
Then to find myself in such a lonely place
And everything I fear
Takes me back to the beginning
But it never felt so empty back to one

I am down back to zero
Never thought I'd need this place again
The tracks along my dreams
Lead me back to the beginning
Back down, to zero
