Cherish

Hey bad boy, it's nice to meet you
Got a couple things I would like to teach you
Rumors going round about you baby
Boy, you know you want it, don't be acting crazy
Let me take you home and let me show you things
You'll be buying me clothes and all the finer things
You'll keep me iced out with diamond necklaces
Let's make the best of it, ask no questions
I know you're taken but that's all right
The anticipation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Boy, I know you got a girl but it's on tonight
I know you're taken but that's all right
The infatuation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Yo, you know I got a man but it's on tonight
Temperature's rising, it's getting crazy
Now I got you telling your friends I'm your baby
Why you trying to fight your feelings for me?
I got you asking me to be your lady
Let me take you home and let me show you things
You'll be buying me clothes and all the finer things
You'll keep me iced out with diamond necklaces
Let's make the best of it, ask no questions
I know you're taken but that's all right
The anticipation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Boy, I know you got a girl but it's on tonight
I know you're taken but that's all right
The infatuation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Yo, you know I got a man but it's on tonight
Oh oh, oh oh, you know you want me so let's go
Oh oh, oh oh, no time to waste it, here we go
Oh oh, oh oh, I'll have you feening that's for sho
So what you waiting for now?
Oh oh, oh oh, you know you want me so let's go
Oh oh, oh oh, no time to waste it, here we go
Oh oh, oh oh, I'll have you feening that's for sho
So what you waiting for now?
I know you're taken but that's all right
The anticipation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Boy, I know you got a girl but it's on tonight
I know you're taken but that's all right
The infatuation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Yo, you know I got a man but it's on tonight
I know you're taken but that's all right
The anticipation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly

Boy, I know you got a girl but it's on tonight I know you're taken but that's all right
The infatuation's making me hot
You're looking sexy and you're looking fly
Yo, you know I got a man but it's on tonight
