

So Many People

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Everything under the sun going to hell
In an episode of SNL
Busted on the TV,
You ugly girl, you cannot sing,
Can't even lip sync
Apparently money can even buy you dignity
Everyone will forget in a couple of days
It doesn't matter what they say in the press, I guess.
Am I the only one feeling the itch,
Because they're giving away the billboard awards to some phony little (gasp) So what would you know about how your song goes?
Just let that tape roll. So many faces of so many people are covered in stupid
And all they wanna do is get in
I know that your parents are brother and sister
It's idiot season, let the hunting begin
Let the hunting begin
Let the hunting begin
Let the hunting begin! Since practice wasn't on the list,
Clearly, talent doesn't exist.
Maybe Joe can buy you a set of bigger tits
Apologize to the world and admit that you were wrong
Who's dick did you have to suck to get that number one song? So what would you know about how your song goes?
Just let that tape roll. So many faces of so many people are covered in stupid
And all they wanna do is get in
I know that your parents are brother and sister
It's idiot season, let the hunting begin
Let the hunting begin
Let the hunting begin
Let the hunting begin! Well who's this little cow who's got my elbow in her mouth
To keep the sound from coming out?
I'm sure your daddy's really proud

But he knows what we all know. So many faces of so many people are covered in stupid

And all they wanna do is get in

I know that your parents are brother and sister

It's idiot season, let the hunting begin

I know that your parents are brother and sister

It's idiot season, let the hunting begin

So many faces of so many people are covered in stupid

And all they wanna do is get in

I know that your parents are brother and sister

It's idiot season, let the hunting begin
